

Residency Project Timeline

July	Literature search, study design, write protocol
August
September	Present project protocol to department
October
November	Apply for ethical review
December
January	Data Collection
February
March	Data analysis
April	Prepare poster and presentation
May	Present residency project to department in preparation for Residency Presentation Night  Attend BC Resident Research Night
June	Write manuscript
July	Submit manuscript to project preceptor no later than 30 days after the end of residency program
August	Submit for BC-CSHP Awards (mandatory)

Note: This timeline provides a general overview of the residency project process. Depending on the type of project, this timeline may be different.